Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

The reader will observe that this is No. 1 of Volume 5, which means that we are beginning our 5th year of publication. We are deeply grateful to the people of Grenada and many people elsewhere for their continued support which has permitted the old lady and me to make a belated second start in life. She has worked hard and I have done some "deep" thinking and sitting around. We have tried quite successfully, we think, to stick to our slogan, announced in No. 1, Vol. 1, "Grenada News A Specialty; Other News Used Only in Emergencies," and we still believe that that kind of news is the kind that Grenada people want. Our earnest endeavor will be to make the GCW more interesting to the readers and more profitable to the advertisers. Our subscription list has experienced a healthy, steady growth ON MERIT, and not on high pressure campaigns. Practically all of our subscribers have walked in the door.

We have several hundred "charter members," some of whom have already renewed. We certainly would appreciate if the others would send in their renewals without awaiting an official notice. It is too damned hot to make out subscription notices, and if it is too damned hot to make out a check, just wait, as we are going to do, until the weather gets cooler.

Our job department, to which we give meticulous care and attention, is growing and we hope that those whom we favor by giving worthwhile publicity to THEIR pet schemes will remember us when they need job printing done.

Elsewhere in this issue is a Homergram devoted to the interest of Wall Doxey. There will be a Homergram every week.

If looks like Mike Conner is going to take my advice and not get mixed up in politics. Certainly he has too much political acumen to let the others get such a "head start" on him, if he is going to run.

Editor Jimmie Arrington accused me of trying to start a civil war between North Mississippi and South Mississippi because I have been preaching about the South Mississippi tail wagging the North Mississippi dog. Well, Jimmie, the folks up this way are becoming more and more conscious of their political strength and are going to stop leetting South Mississippi have all the important offices. Northeast Mississippi has about one-half of the votes of the State, and its people are going to use those votes for their own advantage in the future.

I wish I was down on one of those piers along the Coast instead of sweltering here in this hot spell.

I had rather be shot than poisoned, and I guess a dog thinks the same way about it.

Mesdamse E. L. Boteler, Georgia Staten and E. R. Grantham are attending the Home and Farm celebration at State College.

Everybody except those who were sent to Parchman had a grand time at court this week.

Our Circuit Judge, John Allen, certainly is a splendid man. His head is filled with hard common sense; he tempers justice with mercy and never dodges the issue. From a physical standpoint the judge is remarkabe as he can do things that many men twenty years younger would halt at.

John Bradley, we are happy to report, is able to be up and about after six weeks in the hospital and at home. He wears a bellyband like he did when he was a nursling.

Our Beat Four friend, Jonathan Thomas, attended court this week as a spectator.

We understand that the sales at the North Mississippi Sales Company, at the Fair-Grounds in Grenada, are getting bigger and better.

Jutt Cook came by Thursday morning and stated that the revivalist at Nebo had been giving him hell for his evil ways. He stated that all he wanted was sense enough to keep out of court and religion enough to kepp out of Hell

Subscriber Gene Fly, of Jackson, dropped by to say hello.

Miss Jane Young certainly has a fine crop of weeds in her garden adjoining the Presbyterian church

I sometime wish I was a preacher and could sit in the shade and think. I may start preaching any time now. I am not too good to be a preacher.

Mrs. Walter S. P. Doty Died Tuesday At Noon

Mrs. Walter S. P. Doty, widow of the late Hon. W. S. P. Doty, died in her home in Grenada at noon on Tuesday, July 29, 1941 following an illness that had caused her to remain indoors for over a year.

She was born on the Jones plantation near Coffeeville, Yalobusha county, on February 13, 1868 and was the daughter of Captain Roland Ward Jones and Elizabeth Fields Clouston Jones, pioneers settlers of that community. She was reared on that fine plantation and received her education and was graduated from Columbia Institute, an Episcopal institution, in Columbia, Tennessee. On December 20, 1892, she and Hon. W. S. P. Doty of Montgomery county were married. They made their home in Grenada where they reared their family.

Mrs. Doty was a very devout member of All Saints Episcopal Church of Grenada. She helped organize the Ladies Guild of that church and, when that organization of church women became the Auxiliary, she continued her activity therein. Her unfailing interest in this branch of the church's work was well known. She was accredited with being the best teacher of the woman's class that All Saints Church has had in modern times, for she not only prepared herself but delivered the message in an intelligent and pleasing manner. Next to her home and family, she loved her church.

At four o'clock Wednesday afternoon the simple, democratic service of the Episcopal Church was given at the church by the rector, Rev. C. S. Liles, after which the flower-banked casket containing her body was carried to the Odd Fellows Cemetery and intered.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Louis Weir, J. L. Townes, Jr., Billy Hoffa, Donald Sharp, L. J. Doak and Harry Burkley.

Three sons, three daughters and five grandchildren survive her. The sons are Messrs. Roland W. Doty, of Kansas City, Missouri, Walter Doty of Grenada and Edward C. Doty, of San Francisco, California. The daughters are Mesdames Carrie D. Cockerham, of Opelousas, Louisiana, Emma D. Wooten, of Lemoore, California and Martha Jean D. Watson, of Biloxi, Miss.

To the bereaved members of this fine family, the Grenada County Weekly adds its sincere sympathy to that of other members of this community.

Martha Ann Nail, Eleven, Passes Away

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon, July 24, 1941, at two o'clock from the home on East Govan, for eleven year old Martha Ann Nail, born July 12, 1930, daughter of Mr. Clyde Nail and Mrs. Mildred Spain Nail, of Grenada, who passed away at the family home on Wednesday, July 23 at 8:30, following a long illness of rheumatic fever.

Rev. E. R. Henderson, pastor of Central Baptist Church, and Rev Glenn E. Wiley, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Grenada, officiated. Interment was in Woodland cemetery.

Besides her parents she leaves three sisters, Audrey, Vivian and Merle, also one brother, Clyde Wilson Nail.

To the bereaved ones whose hearts ache with loneliness, we extend our sympathy in their great loss.

Wall Doxey Motorcade Here Monday

About seventy-five cars bearing friends of Wall Doxey, candidate for the U. S. Senate, stopped in Grenada Monday for lunch. They were enroute to Gulfport where Mr. Doxey will fire the opening gun in his campaign.

Williams For Doxey

Wall Doxey is the man to send to the United States Senate. He is clean, conscientious, capable. His fourteen-year record merits your support.

DREAM OF EDITORS COMES TO LIFE FOR FLORIDAN

EUSTIS, Fla., July 28—Emmett Peter, Jr., editor of the Lake Region weekly here, has found a new high in honesty.

A subscriber walked into the newspaper office and stated:

"I'm sorry I'm six weeks late settling this account but I've been putting the papers on the mantelpiece unopened until I was able to pay. I'm going home now and read them all."

Wins Fine Trip By Being Good Car Dealer

Mr. J. H. Neely, president of Grenada Auto Company, Chrysler and Plymouth dealers, returned Monday from a three-day deep sea fishing trip on Bayou LaBatre and to and around Dauphine Island, which he won from his wholesale dealer, J. P. Fisher Motor Company for being one of the four best dealers in the Fisher territory.

The party were out three days, beyond the glaring headlines of news papers, beyond the softening influence of women and even beyond the source of licker (unless they carried a stock aboard the vessel). He reported a "grand" time, and returned to Grenada feeling a great deal more able to cope with the problems, and in such a good humor that he gave us two ads.

Weir Family Enjoy Vacation Trip In Georgia

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weir and three children returned home Monday night from a week-end trip which took them to the home of Mr. Weir's twin sister, Mrs. O. L. Thomas, in Sylacauga, Ala., and another visit at Fort Benning, Ga., where Mrs. Weir's brother, Jimmie Fite is in camp.

While the Weir family was at Fort Benning, the army staged one of its sham air battles. About 15 fighter planes were engaged in the dive bombing and large fighter planes with parachute jumpers, each plane having about 15 jumpers, took part.

The Weirs, and many more people who were at this camp where 40,000 soldiers are enrolled, got the thrill of a lifetime watching the sham battle.

Mr. and Mrs. Weir took their children to Warm Springs, Ga., for a brief stay. They went swimming in the famous Warm Springs there. Mr. Weir's two nieces, Doris and Frances Thomas accompanied them to Grenada for a visit.

MR. SOLAR REASSURES PEOPLE CONCERNING HOSIERY MILL

The following letter which expresses the conservative judgment of Mr. I. E. Solar, President of Grenada Industries, Inc., concerning the probable effect of a possible embargo on imports of silk upon activities at the hosiery mill, is published with the consent of Mr. Solar:

Dear Friend Whitaker:

There has undoubtedly been considerable speculation as to the effect on the hosiery mill of the recent economic moves of our Government against Japan.

Obviously under under present world conditions it is impossible to foretell with reasonable certainty what the eventual situation will be effecting the hosiery industry generally, or any industry for that matter. We feel, however, that our friends will receive some reassurance from the statement that nothing has happened so far that has not been foreseen by the management and, therefore, provided for within reasonable limits. No immediate effect is anticipated as materials are available for continuing normal operation for the time being.

If, eventually, the supply of silk is cut off and barring the very remote possibility of further restructions, plans have already been formulated for dealing with the situation. Under such circumstances there may be a short, partial adjustment period to the new conditions but we see no cause for real concern either among our friends or among employes.

Circuit Court Began Mid-Summrr Session Monday

With Judge John Allen on the bench and with District Attorney J. P. Coleman of Ackerman and County Attorney Marshall Perry looking after the interests of the State of Mississippi, and with Charlie Worsham and his deputies attending to the recording, the midsummer session of Circuit Court got off to a quick start Monday morning with the impanelling of the juries, the selection of the grand jury foreman and the judge's charge to the grand jury.

The following constitute the grand jury: R. J. Sykes, J. W. Bowen, Jr., Jim Harris, W. H. Gentry, Lawrence Cunningham, Guy Fite, Dave Williams, Jr., Robert O'Rell, Z. E. Crosswaite, Joe Mitchell, A. J. Angevine (Foreman), T. J. Cole, H. V. Phillips, H. D. Staten, Walter Young, H. C. James, Jack Britt, Edward Kersch, C. M. Epperson, and Lacy Thomas.

Petit Jury No. 1 is composed of W. D. Worsham, Pat Ryan, J. W. Pritchard, M. V. McCormick, H. R. Johnson, W. I. Harris, C. E. Eidon, J. E. Gray, E. P. Jones, D. M. Carlisle, F. B. Larsen and E. C. Hayward.

Petit jury No. 2 is composed of C. B. Johnson, Clyde Head, M. Q. McCormick, A. R. Finney, A. A. Henson, Harry Ray, G. S. Wood, William Wright, Jim Moore, C. A. Doolittle Junius Townes, Sr., and D. M. Anthony.

The case of Miss Pauline Carpenter vs the Western Union Telegraph Company et al, in which the lady was suing for $2,960.00 for alleged misconduct toward her by the agent at Carrollton, consumed the court's time Monday and Tuesday and resulted in a verdict for the defendant. The paintiff was represented by Ex-Governor Lee Russell, while the defendants were represented by Messrs. Dick Denman of Greenwood and Phil Stone of Oxford.

Wednesday was consumed with trial and settlement of minor cases and the beginning of the trial of a negro murder case.

The arguments in the above care are being made this morning. Following the conclusion of that case, the appeal of Mr. Grady Green from a sentence imposed by the city court will be heard. This is a so-called pinball case. The city council passed an ordinance prohibiting the operation of pinball machines in the city. Mr. Green, represented by Hon. W. B. Nicols, will attempt to show that the machine is a machine not of chance byt of skill. The Hopgood case in which tre defendant is arraigned for killing Percy Mabry near Ledlore is also scheduled for hearing today. Several alleged cattle thieves are scheduled to be tried Judge Allen announced that no more civil cases would be tried during this term.

The grand jury adjourned Tuesday noon. It is understood that this session of circuit court will end Friday.

Supervisors Hear From Congressman Ford

Each member of the Grenada County Board of Supervisors is in receipt of the following letter from Congressman A. L. Ford:

"The Secretary of War, his assistant Mr. Patterson and General Marshall advise me that they are giving serious consideration to the location of an army camp in the vicinity of Grenada. They are not yet willing to make definite committment, but I hope that they will decide favorably on this location."

CHICAGOIANS GUESTS OF MRS. SALMON

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Hollister, of Chicago, friends of Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Salmon, of Chicago, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Salmon on Sunday and Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollister, who are connected with University of Chicago are enroute to their home after an extended tour of the West and South, including a trip to Mexico, with a stay at Mexico City, where they attended an International Sunday School Convention. While in Mexico City they were included as guests with other dignitaries attending the convention at a beautiful tea at the American Embassy with Mr. and Mrs. Josephan Daniel as hosts.

The Hollisters visited in the J. T. Thomas and Horatio Blain homes also.

Her many friends in Grenada will regret to hear that Mrs. M. D. Adams, popular and efficient employee of the local telephone branch, is seriously ill in her old home in Brookhaven.

Post Office To Observe Daylight Saving Time

On August 1, 1941,, the Grenada post office will change to daylight saving time.

The rural carriers will make delivery of the mail at the same hour, by the clock, as before but with the post office clock set up to Central Daylight Saving Time, delivery will actually be one hour earlier than before. Patrons on the various routes should take due notice of this chane in time to avoid any inconvenience or disappointment on their part.

The city carriers will make delivery of the mail one hour later by the clock, daylight saving time, morning and afternoon. Mail will be collected from the various Collection Mail Boxes one hour later than the time marked thereon, with exception of the night collection, 7:15 to 7:40 p. m. which will remain the same.

By daylight saving time, the post office will open and close at the same hours, by the clock as before. Windows will open at 8 a. m. and close at 6 p. m.

Mail for general delivery and lock boxes, before noon, will be practically unaffected by the change in time but mail ordinarily received at noon and after will be received one hour later, by the clock.

The dispatching time of mail from the post office will be as follows for out-of-town: 12:30 p. m., 1:30 p. m. 2:15 p. m. 5:00 p. m. 7:20 p. m. 8:30 p. m. Central Daylight Saving Time.

Due to the schedule of Trains, Busses and other contract carriers of the mail which schedule remains unchanged, the above changes in the schedule of this post office are necessary.

The postmaster, assistant postmaster or clerks will gladly furnish all patrons with any other information desired.

Respectfully,
R. D. SHARP, P. M.

Carter Family Hold Family Reunion

By Mt. Nebo Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Carter held a family reunion Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Carter, Shannon; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, Tupelo; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wooten, Pittsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Creston Carter and daughter, Jackie, Calhoun City; Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Philadelphia, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Rounsaville, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Avent and daughter, Claire, Mr. Thomas Carter, Memphis; Mr. Vol Rounsaville and Mrs. Harry Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Mitchell, Tunica; Mr. Jack Carter, State College; Miss Wilma Carter, Durant; Miss Irene Holder, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Jut Cook, Mr. Doll Clark, Miss Annabell Clark, Mr. Jess Clark, all of Big Creek. The above were all-day guests. Throughout the afternoon thirty more called. For lack of space, will finish next week.

Maybe the power trust will get a rest now that Red Briscoe is hot and bothered about the senatorial race.

My Column

Cpl. Whyte Whitaker Jr

Last week we failed to mention that Corporal S. B. Spence has added a third stripe and that Private Lee Cassarad and Private Leo Hardage had been promoted to Corporals. Congratulations, boys.

* * *

It seems that Corporal J. T. Gant, Privates Lee H. Morgan and Pender grass will receive O. D. D. We will hate to see these boys leave the battery, but if they are physically unfit for military service they will be better off back in civilian life. They volunteered their services for the defense of America—they've done their part.

* * *

It seems as though Corporal Dorsey Ray Tollison is having some difficulty coming from the direction of Elliott, Miss. Thursday we learned that Tollison has had a tendency to tolerate this interference, but his patience will go so far and no further. I have had the invasion of part of the correspondence from this battery to Grenada and I find that Corporal Elliott, because of the lack of response on Elliott, had devoted most of his time corresponding with a certain Grenada lady at the Star Cafe.

* * *

W. B. "Bunch" Alde and Henry S. Wall have recently completed a course in Radio Engineering at the University of Florida, at a cost of $20.00 each to the government. This course lasted for 5 weeks and took in lectures, laboratory work and radio theory.

* * *

"Bloody" Brodsworth, said he worked 8 months and got one stripe and painted it on. He's lost his rating but don't know how he's going to get the stripe off.

* * *

Every time we look into Sullivan's Echols' Rapid eyes we see "Blisters." They are strictly "Blisters," too.

* * *

Place: Road in front of battery.
Time: 15 minutes before retreat.
Scene: Pete Mitchell, "Big" Hardin and "Hoot" Rains with their heads buried through the windows of a sedan lanky, multi-colored lovers whose car go consisted of five beautiful wenches from Tupelo.
Solution: The doors are flung open, the three men are discovered, side of the car is jumps to life and tears down the road like a speed demon.
Results: Rains missed retreat, and was confined to his tent from Thursday through Sunday. He was last seen running back and forth across his tent giving vent to the vilest of oaths and profane language.
Curtain: The concert will be a little come early and get a front seat.

* * *

While visiting John Ed Chandler who had just had the misfortune of losing four wisdom teeth between grunts and groans and utterances against the Dental profession he took time out to sing praises of one Hazel Garrett, whom he met at the 114th F. A. dances (incidentally, she's from Greenville and while we are at it we might add she's strictly easy on the eye.

* * *

The boys have been trying to decide which is the biggest gold bricker in the battery, and they are about to nominate Edwin Jeannard. Is he and Lollipop still mad?

GASTON DOES A HARD JOB WELL

Orchids to Charles C. Gaston for his splendid work in training men in the 30th Brigade to be qualified operators. During the last three months he has been instrumental in qualifying 121 operators in this regiment.

The following names are those who have qualified as radio operators. All of them can send and receive 12 words of letters in Morse International Code. They have worked hard and this battery is proud of them. Most of them are first class privates with third or fourth class specialist rating; these ratings are $36.00 and $52.00, respectively. They are: Russell Alexander, W. B. "Bunch" Alde, W. B. Alde, LeBlanc, Woodall, Noel, Stanley, Harland, Thompson, Berry, Williams and Litten.

Lyle Cox has qualified under his own initiative to qualify as an operator. In order to qualify an operator must be able to send and receive twenty letters per minute; must be qualified in army radio procedure, and be efficient in installation and operation of Signal radio sets.

The following commendation, issued by Lt. Col. Paxton, Commanding Officer of the 63rd Artillery, Camp Blanding, Florida, is in connection with the 30th Field Artillery Brigade Radio School, and the following non-coms-Staff Sergeant James Crosby, Staff Sergeant Grady M. Duckett, Staff Sergeant Charles C. Gaston—

SEATH L. LOWRY, Jr.
Brigadier General, U.S.A.
Commanding.

Headquarters 114th Field Artillery, Camp Blanding, Fla., July 16, 1941.

To Staff Sgts. Crosby, Duckett and Gaston, 114th F. A., Camp Blanding, Florida.

The undersigned was pleased to receive the recommendation and appreciation for the excellent service rendered.

By your loyal and faithful attention to duty you have collected much credit for yourself and your regiment, and it is good to see the work.

A. H. Paxton,
Col. 114th F. A.
Commanding.

POISONED MONDAY

BIJBO

BIJBO. (The Whitaker Dog)

"I try to keep my stride,
With all the best of people
I went to graduation,
And thought to bear
My mistress slur
But lo a preacher grabbed me,
And tried his neck to ring.

"Although this hurt my pride,
I doubled up my strong resolve
To tread the narrow way
In the beauteous dawn,
I went to sweet communion
I lay down on the floor,
And thumped my tail with zeal.
For this I got a vicious thump
Right on my rump,
Applied by mistress' heel".

NOTE: Dear Mr. Editor, this is a tribute to your dog, Bijbo, who tries so nobly to attend church services, and all those things, which the best of pests are supposed to indulge in.

Not for the world, would we have anyone think this was a political poem. It would not fit the dog's name sake at all.

Furthermore, we have made enough political blunders just lately to last for several years to come. Like Mr. Editor, we resolve to keep as far from that fire as possible.

Lady Byron

With The FSA

The Farm Security Administration of Grenada County has sponsored a Poultry Program this year which has been very successfully carried out by the majority of the 100 families who obtained loans to purchase purebred baby chicks. The baby chicks were purebred pullorum tested and from U. S. approved hatcheries. We were able to buy these chickens for six and one half cents each by submitting bids through our County Cooperative Purchasing and Marketing Association.

The following families have kept a record on the cost of their chickens.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Yopp, Rt. 5, Grenada, Miss.

Purebred 120 White Rock baby chicks at a cost of $7.80.

Raised 112 chicks out of number purchased.

Cost of feed $13.50; making the total cost for chicks and feed $21.30.

Sold 40 of this number for $21.00.

Have 60 pullets to carryover. Also have 12 more cockerels to eat, sell, or carry over. You can readily see that the 60 pullets and 12 extra cockerels are clear profit with the exception of the 30c difference in the cost of the chickens and feed and the amount received from the 40 chickens sold.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spruill, Rt. 8, Grenada, Miss.

Purchased 200 White Leghorn chicks for $13.00.

Raised 192 chicks from number purchased. Cost of Feed $16.25.

Making the total cost of the chicks $29.25—Sold 75 chicks for $15.75. Have 95 pullets to carryover and 22 cockerels to eat, sell, or carryover.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Beckham, Rt. 1, Scobey, Miss.

Purchased 100 White Leghorn for $6.50. Raised 90 chicks out of number purchased. Cost of feed purchased $2.00. Making total cost $8.50—Sold 53 chickens for $4.55.

Have 43 pullets to carry over and have 34 cockerels to eat, sell or carry over.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson, Harvey, Miss.

Purchased 150 White Wyandottes at a cost of $9.75. Raised 136 out of number purchased. Cost of feed $21.00, making a total cost of chicks and feed $30.75. Sold 40 chicks for $22.00. Have 63 pullets to carryover. Also have 33 more cockerels to eat, sell or carry over.

Tom C. Parker (colored), Route 4, Grenada, Miss. Purchased 175 White Leghorns for $11.38. Raised 135 out of number purchased. Cost of feed $15.00. Making the total cost of the chicks and feed $26.38. Sold 58 of this number for $13.00. Number of pullets to carryover 60; also have 18 more cockerels to eat, sell or carry over.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

We noted several loafers over the streets in Gulfport, "The Mississippi Coast is solid for Ross Collins for U. S. Senator," and if that is so, Wall Doxey wasted his time speaking there last Tuesday night.

While Oversea, Terrell and I spent the week-end with my folks on the Coast, we ran into several politicians, Tom Bailey of Meridian and Si Corley, Commissioner of Agriculture.

And by the way, the Korean lespedeza and soralia, if that's the way to spell it, which Frank Kraft sent by Si Corley on the Know Mississippi Better Train opened the eyes of the Northern people who saw with amazement these products of the southern soil.

Aint they sweet.

There is a lot of water in the Mississippi Sound this year.

Boll Weevil Bad

If the following reports are true, the boll weevil are terribly bad this year:

One man reported that the weevil had eaten up all of his cotton and that, when he went to the mail box, he found the box full of boll weevils waiting to eat his parity check.

Another man reported that he heard piteous screaming coming from his cotton patch. Upon investigation, he found that the old boll weevils were whipping the younger ones to make the younger ones take two rows at once.

Bad, if true.

Turn The Air On Japan

Why should the United States continue to try to appease Japan? The appeasement policy of Great Britain toward another dictator-governed country led to the terrible conditions we now face.

However much it may disturb business conditions in this country, an absolute embargo should be placed on exports to Japan, and nothing from Japan should be permitted to enter this country. It would be better to endure temporary suffering than to furnish gasoline, scrap iron and other vital materials to a country apparently bent upon dominating the Pacific.

Recent history clearly demonstrates that appeasement does not "work."

This is Volume Five, Number One, and that indicates that we have begun our fifth year, thanks to the forbearance of our friends and to the patronage of subscribers, advertisers and users of job printing.

UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE

By Herbert B. Allen

Raleigh, North Carolina, July 26, 1941

This busy North Carolina tobacco center was named for one of old England's most famous cavaliers, that great favorite of Queen Elizabeth, Sir Walter Raleigh, of tobacco renown. I cannot think of a more appropriate place in which to write of a most cavalier gesture toward the Southern States, which I witnessed recently in Washington.

At noon, last Thursday, as I was returning to my hotel for lunch, I called in at the Senate Office Building to say hello to the quiet mannered, unassuming Senator Jim Eastland. Something evidently was in the air, and he invited me to accompany him to the Senate, which I gladly did, for I was probably the only Mississippian to witness what took place there. I was not told the nature of what was to happen, but merely knew that he "was going to do something."

Since I have been in the South, I have been writing about the imperative need for ACTION, and writing about Southern men of action, imagination and initiative. It has not discouraged me that I have usually had to write about your fathers and your grandfathers. My contention has been that if they could do it, it could, and would, be done AGAIN.

What I saw, when Senator Eastland arose to speak, reminded me of the rosy days of Big Business, when famous Republican Senators could be counted on to get into motion with the speed of spitfires, when action of any kind threatened powerful Wall Street interests.

When the cotton market opened in New York on Wednesday, July 23rd, reports from Washington that the Department of Agriculture might throw some of the government held cotton on the market precipitated a selling wave which caused a break of forty points during the first hour of trading, and brought to an abrupt halt the recent brisk rise in cotton prices. The trading interests were left in uncertainty, and the market closed around the lowest quotations for the day.

Keeping his own counsel, Senator Jim did some fast calculating, and some rapid thinking, and then went into action with more speed than has been shown by a Senator from the Magnolia State for longer than you can remember.

Shortly after the chaplain's prayer of invocation, Senator Jim was on his feet to introduce Bill 1775 (it should have been numbered 1776 for its spirit accorded with the spirit of independence which we associate with the latter figure). This Bill required the Commodity Credit Corporation to withhold from the market all cotton held for the account of the United States until cotton reached thirty (30c) cents a pound!

The old line Democrats in the Senate are accustomed to monopolizing these matters among themselves, and from my seat in the Senate press gallery I watched with great amusement the faces of stalwarts like Glass, McKeller and Cotton Ed Smith, as they observed the young Mississippian taking the bull by the horns, and really going to town for cotton. These things are usually done only after ponderous deliberation and horse trading, and then with equally ponderous maneuvers.

Action and independence were not the only things that I admired in Jim's conduct on the Senate floor. In these columns, I have persistently deplored the distressing poverty rampant in the State of Mississippi, and the seeming indifference to this condition of affairs of those who have lived all of their lives in its presence.

It has not been the vogue for Mississippi Senators to get up in the Senate and speak of these deplorable facts in terms of stark reality. But Senator Eastland, in support of the amendment he was introducing declared, "The poorest we have, those with the lowest standard of living in the United States, are small cotton growers and the tenant farmers. The Department of Agriculture . . . can by depressing the market, destroy the standard of living of people in entire states of the union, and take the very bread of life from the poorest people in our economic structure."

He insisted that while cotton had reached parity in price, it had not reached parity in terms of income. "It is extremely unfortunate that the government, after spending millions of dollars in an attempt to put the cotton market at a parity price with industrial products, should attempt, by selling government held cotton, deliberately to depress the cotton market right at the time when cotton is in the hands of the producers, and thus deprive the cotton grower not only of a prosperous year, but of the first opportunity to recoup his former losses."

Until Senator Eastland spoke, cotton prices had been sagging under heavy liquidation, but immediately after the tickers carried the provisions of his Bill, the market rallied to close to thirty-five (35) points above Wednesday's closing price.

Nothing succeeds like success—for as I was leaving Jim's office after discussing the events of the afternoon, the suave and astute Ross Collins came in, evidently with the purpose of introducing a companion Bill in the House of Representatives. Imitation is still the sincerest form of flattery!

MISSISSIPPI

Down by the Yalobusha,
Where Magnolias shade the lawn;
The bob whites call each evening,
And the mockingbirds at dawn.

There flowers bright and fragrant,
All the gardens glorify;
And gorgeous sunsets introduce
The night's majestic sky.

The folks all speak in accents soft
And pleasing to the ear;
They grip my hand in friendship,
And revere traditions dear.

Grand melodies in choral tones,
Sung by familiar faces,
Accompany sermons by my friends,
Exhorting Christian graces.

The fragrance of young chicken
Fried with artistry and skill,
Combines with good hot corn bread
In rhapsody to thrill.

The Spirit of the old deep South
Lends dignity to life;
A haven from confusion
In a world so torn by strife.

So now to pack my other shirt,
And don my gayest tie;
Treat my good Chrysler to some gas—
Then to the North, "Good bye!"

Herbert B. Allen.

FROM A REBEL HILL TOP

By The Grenadier

Columbia, South Carolina, July 27th

Why is Japan so anxious to move northward into the black and frigid regions of Russian Siberia—and southward into the tropical paradise of the Dutch East Indies? Which would be the less dangerous adventure for the chauvinist Japanese militarists to attempt at the present moment? In this article I shall deal with those factors which influence Japanese ambitions southward, and discuss Japan's Siberian aspirations in next week's column.

Some things have to be seen to be appreciated. One may describe the magnificent panorama of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River in Arizona; or the inspiring beauty of a rainbow arching upward from the mists above Niagra Falls. But the most meticulous account of these impressive spectacles leaves a great deal to be desired, and no words fail to convey a true picture of the scenic and material wealth of the Dutch East Indies.

But, by means of local comparison, let us examine some of the statistics covering this region. Stretching across four thousand miles of the equatorial belt, north of Australia, their area is equal to the American States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas! And over sixty million natives in the Dutch East Indies are equivalent to more than two-thirds of the population of the entire South American continent, which has only ninety millions.

Java, the principal island, is, in my opinion, is the pearl and emerald of all of the world's tropical islands. About the size of the State of Mississippi, this long narrow island would stretch from Chicago to Winona, Mississippi; and it ranges in width from twenty miles, to a distance equal to that from Memphis to Duck Hill, Mississippi, at its widest.

On this narrow island live about fifty million persons, for England and Java are the most densely populated countries on earth. Java has eight hundred and twenty people to the square mile; England has seven hundred and fifty; and in Mississippi we have about forty-five persons on one square mile! So it becomes apparent what a remarkable market Java would make for the cheap cotton textiles which Japan exports; while Java herself is one of the most fertile garden spots on earth, exporting large quantities of tropical produce to the temperate zone.

One of the peculiarities of Java is the two distinct languages spoken there by the Malay race. Each of these languages possesses three distinct vocabularies—one used in speaking to your social equals, one in addressing your superiors, and a third employed in conversing with your social inferiors. Singularly, you have something akin to this in modern Germany.

Here is a little note to my Mississippi friends who have been predicting that I would melt away entirely when the REAL hot weather set in. In the city of Batavia, in Java, which is virtually on the equator, the official thermometer has never been known to register above ninety-six (96) degrees.

Boreno, the home of those wild head hunters, who animated the adventure stories of our boyhood days, is a giant wilderness, larger than Texas, covered with dense rain forest, and sparsely populated. It has valuable petroleum resources, and great possibilities but would require much coolie labor for development. As Japan is learning the legerdemain (?) of totalitarian finance, where the imagination serves the purposes of money, and the Nazi technique for forcibly exporting millions of coolie Chinese laborers from a subjugated China, Boreno would become a very productive island also.

The Celebes are the genuine spice islands, and are capable of much intensive development. New Guinea is largely an unknown wilderness, but is becoming better known through aerial exploration by the Australians. To the westward, fifty miles across the Straits of Malacca from Sumatra, [illegible] the famous island of Singapore, the key to the Far East and most precious gem in England's crown of colonies.

Every time you buy an exclusive clear, it should come in a Sumatra wrapper, for it is from there where essential leaves of such fine texture and delicate veining is produced. Most of these leaves are grown around Medan, the land being used only once in seven years. If I remember correctly, during the intervening six years the [illegible] grows with phenomenal rapidity, and in this region is three hair trunks.

OLE MISS PIANO SCHOLARSHIP TO TUPELO STUDENT

Margaret Louise Harvey, talented daughter of Mrs. M. F. Harvey, of Tupelo and piano student of Mrs. Ellis Ewing, has been awarded a scholarship in piano for the next, scholastic year by the music department of the University of Mississippi.

This is the second scholarship that has been conferred upon Miss Harvey, the gifted Tupelo girl having previously won a scholarship offered by the Mississippi Federation of Music Clubs in 1940 while she was a junior in high school here.

The music department of Ole Miss offers one scholarship annually in piano, voice, and organ. The fact that Miss Harvey, who will be a freshman at Ole Miss this fall, was given preference over junior and senior college students indicates the recognition accorded her ability. Many congratulations yesterday were being given Miss Harvey, her mother, and Mrs. Ewing, under whom she received her musical instructions.—Tupelo Journal July 25, 1941.

Miss Harvey is a granddaughter of Mrs. R. W. Sharp of Grenada.

Mrs. Charles Barranco and two children, Sara and Leona, from Pine Bluff, Ark. visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Barranco and family for a few days. Also present the guests from Pine Bluff, accompanied by Mrs. Sam Barranco and children, Chester and Leona, are visiting relatives in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Magnolia, Miss Sarah Elmore attended services at Sparta church Sunday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elmore in the home of Mrs. Elmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carter.

Miss [illegible] returned to Memphis on Monday after she will be the guest of Miss Virginia Anne Lit[illegible] Memphis society girl. Miss [illegible] is a sister-in-law of [illegible] Thursday.

MRS. MATTINGLY HONORED

Mrs. Blanche Mattingly was the inspiration for a very lovely courtesy party given Tuesday morning by Mrs. Joe Brown, to which a small group of ladies, all life-time friends of both the hostess and honoree, were invited.

The scene of this affair was the country home "Triangle R. Lodge," owned by Mrs. Brown's daughter, Mrs. T. B. Revell. Mrs. Revell received the guests, with her mother, and assisted with the refreshments. Delectable sandwiches, cookies and iced Coca-Cola were served; buffet style.

Miss Dick Jones, and her aunt, Miss Lida Owen, spent Friday last in Clarksdale.

Mrs. Ward Allen and two daughters of Greenwood, are guests in the home of their father and grandfather, Mr. Wm. Dubard, this week.

Mr. John Bradley's many friends are happy to see him on the streets of the city again after an absence of about six weeks due to an emergency operation for appendicitis performed in Grenada Hospital.

Miss Bessie Phelan Sharp, who is secretary for Y. W. C. A. work in Monroe, La. and Mrs. Eldridge Parks (nee Mary Lila Sharp) and infant daughter, who reside in Tulsa, have returned to their respective homes after a visit here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sharp.

Miss Frances Holmes of Memphis, will arrive today for a visit in the home of her aunt, Mesdames Rabbi Samuels and Donald Ross.

A party of young business women of Grenada, Misses Kathleen Watson, Mary Elizabeth Rose, of Grenada, and Miss Jeanette Derry, of Cleveland, spent Sunday from a Memphis trip. They were in that delightful section near Dixon Heights and were rarely at the same home longer than the night. They returned home sun-burned and delighted but happy over their outing.

Mrs. Elizabeth McIntosh, mother of Mesdames H. C. Wilson and Letty Lee Hall, returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Harris at Hazlehurst for a visit. She was accompanied to Hazlehurst by her two granddaughters, Misses Vonnette and LaVerne Wilson, who will visit there this week.

MRS. J. H. NEELY HOSTESS

Entertaining with charming graciousness on Tuesday of this week, Mrs. J. H. Neely was hostess to members of the Duplicate Bridge Club at her home on College Street. Lovely snapdragon blossoms and vivid hued zinnias added their beauty to the well arranged living room and adjoining dining room. Three tables were placed for the guests. Non-member guests present were, Mrs. J. T. Salmon, of Chicago, and Mesdames E. L. Bass and James Scott.

At intermission delectable sandwiches and Coca-Cola were served.

High score was compiled by Mesdames Roger Burt and J. T. Salmon. Second high by Mrs. Roger Pleasants and Mrs. Rob Brown.

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, her two daughters, Dorothy and Carolyn, also Miss Mary Elizabeth Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Horton, returned home early Tuesday morning from Biloxi, where they enjoyed a vacation trip for several days.

Attractive Miss Dorothy Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morrison Thomas, of Birmingham, accompanied her aunt, Miss Mary Thomas to Grenada, when she returned from her vacation spent in Birmingham, and will visit here in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Thomas.

Mrs. Blanche Mattingly, who is the guest of her brothers families, the W. F. Martin and Mrs. Ernestine Martin, since her return from the Know Mississippi Better Train trip, was luncheon guest with a small group of close friends, at the home of Mrs. Frank Gerard, on Tuesday.

Dr. Moore Moore of Memphis, and two of his sons, Dr. (Lt.) Sibley Moore, surgeon at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and Mr. Carlton Moore, of Memphis, were guests of their sisters and aunts, Mesdames E. T. Gerard, W. M. Mitchell and A. W. George on Monday.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bernhart motored to Columbus to attend a family reunion in the home of their aunt, Mrs. Helen Martin. The Bernharts returned to their home on Monday.

Misses Georgia and Lucile Cook are in Chicago this week buying stock for their "Novelty Shop". They will go to New Orleans next week to visit in their sister's home.

Mrs. Joe Brown, Mrs. E. R. Pleasants and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Perry Sr. and daughter, Miss Louise, returned home Saturday from a most delightful trip in the K. M. B. Train, which took them to many cities in the East and in Canada.

Miss Martha Bess Brown visited her friend, Miss Ruth Houston in Water Valley this week.

Miss Elise Lockett, of Jackson, visited her mother, Mrs. C. E. Lockett and family this past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dyres' guests on Sunday last included the following relatives from Memphis, Mrs. Walter Wilgus and two children, Ruth and Tommie and Misses Marie Martin and Scottie Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley enjoyed having their father, Mr. Bradley, of Belzoni, their sister, Mrs. Gordan and son, John Howard, also of Belzoni for a Sunday visit this week. Little Margaret Bradley returned to their home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gabbert of Senatobia, spent the past week-end in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Lickfold, Sr. Their niece, Miss Camilla Smith, accompanied them home for a visit.

LIPPENCOTT-MAXEY

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Maxey, of Eupora, are today announcing the marriage of their daughter, Nancy Coni, to Mr. John Duke Lippencott, of Grenada, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lippencott, of Scobey, Miss.

The wedding was solemnized Sunday, June 22, at Eupora, Miss., the Rev. J. R. Reedy officiating.

They will reside in Grenada, where Mr. Lippencott is in the mercantile business.

Mr. William Wright is expecting his brothers, Messrs. John and Robert to spend the week-end here.

Miss Winifred Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" Saunders, spent last week in Greenwood visiting in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ashcraft.

Lynn Williams, who has been in the Radio School at Fort Sill for some extra training is here this week. His young sister, Betty, who resides with her aunt in Louisville, Miss., is here visiting in the home of Miss Lucy Webb Sharp. Lynn will leave Saturday to join his battery at Laurel where they plan to spend the night en-route to Louisiana.

Paul Lockett, son of Mrs. C. E. Lockett, recruit of Aviation, Department of the U. S. Navy, left last week (Tuesday) for New Orleans where he will a wait his camp assignment. Paul expects to be in New Orleans four weeks before beginning active training. He was a medical student at Ole Miss last year. Good luck, Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunthorp had the pleasure of having Mr. Gunthorp's nephew, Mr. Walton West and family of Hattiesburg, here for a brief visit Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. West is Train Dispatcher for Mississippi Central R. R. at Hattiesburg.

Mrs. Emma Dubard, of Charleston, and daughter, Miss Laura Dubard, member of the public school faculty at Jackson, Miss., were guests of their sister and aunt, Mrs. Dora Munro the past two weeks. They have returned to Charleston.

CAPABLE HANDS HOLD THE REINS!

DIXIE'S wheels of defense are turning at a tempo never before equalled. To the numerous factories, military bases, and the public at large, quick, dependable telephone service was never more important than now.

Providing and safeguarding this service in these fast changing times is a tremendous task.

Southern Bell of necessity is a big organization with thousands of highly trained telephone veterans who have met and mastered many emergencies.

About 10,000 new telephone recruits, added during the past two years, are being trained by this experienced army for important positions on the telephone firing line, and more are being added daily.

In all, a combined force of 25,000 workers is rushing telephone expansion to meet the South's ever-increasing demands. Speeding up the delivery of supplies are four huge telephone supply bases located within overnight reach of every major industrial and military center in the South.

This army of loyal telephone men and women is working in harmony to expand and to safeguard the lines of telephone communication throughout the South.

Notes Taken At Circuit Court

Inasmuch as they put Uncle Nau Staten on one of the juries, I have no further kick to make, but will let all cases go to their logical conclusion without protest.

The grand jury room is well guarded with a big heavy set Beat Fiver, Cicero Minyard.

Several who have been buying and drinking licker had a case of amnesia when questioned concerning violations of the law.

See where our old friend, Pat Ryan is gracing Jury No. 1.

A good deal of snuff was consumed during the session, also a wee bit of licker.

O. A. Doolittle did little but sit and look wise on Jury No. 2.

Charlie Worsham and his deputies are now acting like real veterans of the court.

We hope A. J. Angevine, the foreman, will temper justice with mercy and not apply the liar test to too many of the witnesses before the grand jury.

Our overseer, George Oversea Terrell, attended every session, but it was hard to get him to tell what he heard or saw.

Joe Mitchell got a soft berth on the grand jury and made a few extra dollars which come in handy during August, the dammest month in the year.

J. L. Townes, Sr. continued his annual vear's vacation on Jury No. 2.

Everybody missed Dick Latham.

The judge will augment the cotton pickers at Parchman by his contribution of prisoners.

Carl Eidson picked up a few extra dollars by reviewing the cases entrusted to Jury No. 1.

Cousin Ira and all the other Rounsavilles missed out this session and several are figuring on calling for a new deck and new deal.

William Wright for the first time served his country in the capacity of petit juror, gracing Jury 2.

It looks like the grand jury room was hot enough without having any coal, but as luck would have it T. J. Cole was assigned to that body.

They are ruining a good farmer by putting F. B. Larsen on a jury and letting him make easy money.

We think it was unfair to put two McCormicks on the jury and not a single Horton.

If jury 2 needs some heat they can make a fire with G. S. Wood.

A good many lies were told during the session of court.

The Worsham tribe was represented by W. D. and that makes the county safe.

The grand jury should include in its report a request to Senator Bilbo to stop the rains.

Walter Young got his snout in the public trough on the grand jury for the first time.

Jutt Cook was willing but some way or another there was no Cook on the pay roll. That is something very unusual. In fact, as we scan the list hurriedly, we believe that Mt. Nebo was without representation and that's what they fought the Revolutionary War for.

The Thomas family was represented by Lacy who earned his small pay.

Babe Costilow has laid by, and could have been induced to take a seat on either of the three juries. He would not have been too choosey.

Arch Henson got a little of the good gravy.

Glad to see our old war buddy, Harry Ray, of Holcomb, secure a seat where the pay is good and the hearing the best in the house.

We understand the saloonkeepers did a good business during court week, as usual.

It is a great pity that Nink Perry moved to Yalobusha county for they have never got a man who could cry "Order in the Court" with more feeling, dignity and injectiousness.

NOTICE OF SUBSTITUTE TRUSTEE'S SALE

Peach Rings
Broadcast by Mary Lee Taylor, August 21, 1941

1½ cups prepared biscuit flour
3 tablespoons light brown sugar
6 tablespoons Pet Milk diluted with 2 tablespoons water
No. 2 can sliced peaches*

Turn on oven and set at very hot (450°F.). Mix biscuit flour and brown sugar together in bowl. Stir in diluted milk. Beat vigorously for 30 seconds. Turn out on floured board and roll into a sheet measuring about 6x9 inches. Cut into strips 1 inch wide and 9 inches long. Bring ends together to form rings, lapping 1 inch and pinching with fingers to secure. Put on greased baking sheet. Bake 15 minutes, or until brown. Drain peaches and save juice to use in making Lemon Peach Sauce (See Below). Fill centers of rings with peaches. Serve at once with Lemon Peach Sauce.

*If fresh, sliced peaches are used, substitute water for peach juice in the sauce.

Lemon Peach Sauce

6 tablespoons light brown sugar
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup canned peach juice*
1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
1½ tablespoons butter
½ cup Pet Milk

Mix together in saucepan brown sugar, flour and salt. Stir in peach juice. Add lemon rind and butter. Boil 2 minutes, stirring consecutively. Cool slightly. Stir in milk. Serve on Peach Rings (See Above). Serves 6.

*If fresh peaches are used, substitute water for peach juice, increase flour to 2 tablespoons and increase brown sugar to ½ cup.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to publicly thank the doctors, nurses, Grenada Hospital, and our many friends for the interest, loving sympathy and many helpful ministrations extended to us during the long illness and death of our precious little daughter, Martha Ann. Truly you ministered to us in a Christ like way, and, in so doing, you made our burden lighter. May God's richest blessings rest and abide with each of you.

CHAIN LETTER SCHEMES

The mails in all parts of the country are being flooded at the present time with letters relating to so-called endless chain schemes soliciting defense savings stamps. Thus states a notice from the Office of the Solicitor, Post Office Department, Washington, D. C. and . . .

"Patrons of the various post offices depositing in the mails matter relating to schemes of this nature should be warned that the sending of such matter through the mails is a violation of the postal fraud and lottery statues"

I. C. TO OBSERVE NEW TIME

The I. C. Railroad, frieght office and freight house forces at Grenada, will observe daylight-saving time, effective August. 1st.

All trains, passenger and freight, will of course continue to run on central standard time.

I have been trying to find an excuse to use the word, "exculpate" for several weeks but have not got to it yet.

MT. NEBO NEWS

Mesdames Laura Clarke and Nannie Burke have returned from a week's visit to their brother, Dr. Luther Hill, of Blue Mountain, their other brother, Horace Hill, of Pelahatchie joined them for a reunion of the four only living members of the C. C. Hill family.

Mrs. James Kelly, of Clarksdale, is visiting in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Provine.

Dear Mr. Editor: The old Nebo scrive asked us to tell you that "if anything would make him bigity and stuck up, it would be for you to print his tripe on the editorial page of the G. C. W. He has received four letters about said piece, one letter very sarcastic. It says, "Nebo spreads it on too thick for her social and financial standing and that fourth of July pow wow was very silly. Two of the letters bragged on every patriotism and grit to carry on as we did under the toad strangling rain. One letter asked for prices of homes and land here and and letter asked us if we weren't born too soon or too late. We told him we didn't know. Jackson papers can copy if they wish.

We have a man here who some call a freak. He has very great respect for the ladies, in fact is very tolerant of all people opinions and feelings, when and if a woman balls him out, he first grits his teeth (or would if he had any to grit) then repairs to some quiet place and attempts to kick himself, which he finds an uphill business. But ah ha. He thinks of the beautiful lines, "Those who best can bear reproof. Mostly merit praise". We all can get something there.

SCOBY NEWS

DOXEY TO SPEAK

Hon. Wall Doxey will speak in Grenada next Friday evening, August 8, in the public square at 8:30 o'clock. That date happens to be Wall's 49th birthday. Homer Williams, local campaign manager for Mr. Doxey, urges all to come out, hear a fine presentation, and help celebrate the birthday and get in line with the slogan, "All For Wall—Wall For All."

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

On August 1st, Grenada will go on daylight saving time, that is each timepiece will be set up one hour. From now on, nobody will know what time it is. I believe the new 7 o'clock will be the old 6 o'clock, tho I am not sure.

The railroads will run on the old time, while the rest of us will run on the new time. As Shakespeare said, it will be confusion worse confounding.

Bilbo, our puppy, is dead, but the fleas linger on.

This community would be in a hell-uva shape without Biddy.

Maybe the C. of C., the Supervisors, F. D. R., and the Aldermen will get a rest while I am catching hell. Sticks and stones can break my bones, but words can never do it.

It looks like George Criss is making quite a good forest ranger.

Dear Turner Bailey: We want you to come up here Saturday afternoon or Sunday and finish up the wiring. You are getting as unreliable as the wind. It is about as hard to know when you are coming back as it is to know who is going to be elected Senator, when Keen Huffington is to be married and when Harry Greenfield is going to get on the water wagon.

Expert Radio Repair work now at Revell's.

Earl Burkley, czar of the stave mills did not wait to be dunned, or for us to get out a distrainer, but sent in his renewal promptly.

Si Corley, czar of Mississippi agriculture, was good enough to bring Oversea Terrell and me as far as Jackson Sunday.

At Wiggins, I saw for the first time turpentine being made. The crude gum received direct from the cups on the trees is dumped into a retort (or still) and heat is applied. Turpentine being more volatile than water is converted into steam first. The steam is passed through coil cooled by running water, and condensed. Just the same principle that the gosh makers use, except on a larger scale.

Red Taylor is another subscriber who did not have to be dunner, browbeaten, threatened with suit, or worried to death about a renewal.

Aint they sweet

Clarence Burt, portfolio and all, came down from Memphis Sunday.

Grenada profited Monday by the presence of the occupants of about 80 Marshall county cars. That bunch stopped here and received food and drink, but we do not know how much of either. Certainly it was not a hamberger crowd.

Everybody had a grand time at court this week.

Brother Dabney, probational member of the Ferdinand Club, entertained delightfully Monday evening.

Tom Bailey is still smoking a corn cob pipe and being nice to everyone.

If Portugal, Japan, Spain, Switzerland and Sweden would get into the war against England, the fight would be about even.

If there is an army camp located here, Mr. Allen will be primarily responsible.

Yes, we do printing, as well as give publicity to your pet schemes.

Bob West got himself in good shape on the mailing list this week.

Horace Caffey from the swamp near Lamber has been either marked up, or added to the list; anyway we have his $1.50.

Dropped in to see Jimmie Arrington in his den Monday morning. He was as full of bull as ever.

Pay your dues.

I think we got into the babe's quarters in the Mehodist camp ground which leads us to be conclusion that there is not alone a lot of people this year but there will be a lot of them in the years to come.

Ladies calves, knees and hips mean nothin to us now. We have seen so many ladies in bathing suitts recently that we would not walk from the GCW office to the Trust Bank corner to see Lady Goldiva do her bareback (or was it bare skin) ride right around the square.

We are indebted to Mr. John Rundle for the picture of little Ike Pearson, he having seen it in the Globe-Democrat and wrote and secured the cut from that paper.
